Porter chosen as next Wyo. Army Guard chief of staff

CHEYENNE – Col. Greg Porter has been selected as the Wyoming Army National Guard's next chief of staff. Porter will begin his new duties in July.

"I am confident Col. Porter will carry on the excellent work of Col. Sheppard and that the Wyoming Army National Guard will continue to be prepared to meet whatever may come our way," said Maj. Gen. Ed Wright, Wyoming's adjutant general.

Porter currently serves as the Wyoming Army National Guard director of information management.

The chief of staff serves as the principal Wyoming Army National Guard assistant to the adjutant general of Wyoming, leading the Army Guard staff as they support the statewide commands in achieving the adjutant general's goals and objectives.

"I am honored to have been chosen for this position during this important time of transformation in the history of the Army National Guard", said Porter. "I am confident our command, staff and Soldiers will continue to excel in meeting the needs of the state and nation."

Porter replaces Col. Tim Sheppard when Sheppard officially takes over the United States Property and Fiscal Officer position.
